Going to Ateneo was easily one of the best decisions I made in my life. The journey was not as easy as I thought it would be. There were many challenges I had to face such as the fact that I had to be separated from my friends and family in Cebu and having to keep up with Ateneo's rigorous academic standards. In the end, I am proud to say these challenges molded me to become a better version of myself. I am thankful for this journey and to the newfound friends and family I met in Ateneo.
