It's been said that the only thing constant in the world is change. It might happen overnight, it might happen over years. Invite it. Embrace it. Let it help you achieve your goals to become the person you want to be. At times it might be difficult, but you will always thank yourself for being courageous. Still, some things will be constant. Find home in these things. At the end of it all, you will love who you'll become. Love yourself.

“If you love what you do and are willing to do what it takes, it's within your reach. And it'll be worth every minute you spend alone at night, thinking and thinking about what it is you want to design or build.” (Steve Wozniak)
