To my future kids: Hopefully when you are reading this, I am still this happy and have all my hair. The truth is, right now, I don't know what life will be like outside Ateneo, after spending so many years here. I met all the amazing people you now know as your titos and titas. My time here was the hardest, most stressful, best, and happiest of my life, and I will leave grateful, fulfilled, and always ready to go back home.
