Olivia Raissa B. Perlada

Lisa has always had this infectious, bubbly personality. She's the only person I know who could laugh at a joke to the point of crying. Her friends can always count on her to be caring, supportive and, I'll admit, funny.

She always brings her A-Game; throughout college, she accomplished many things, whether it was in the realm of academics or org work.

I have no doubts that she will continue to push the envelope and make us all proud after graduation. (M. Murga)

MINOR IN LITERATURE (ENGLISH)

Katrina Isabelle G. Pimentel

If you need a friend who cares too much about you, KP is the one. She is a thoughtful, supremely gullible, and an always-smiling rainbow who showers you with cupcakes when you need it most. The magic in the books she reads can't compare to the magic she creates in her real-life fairytale. There is no one you can trust more than her. If you're lucky enough, when you swim down to the depths of the ocean, among the gadgets, gizmos and plenty, you'll find the one and only KP. (G. Sison & G. Tantoco)
