The adventure is in the heart of the explorer; anything can be thrilling as long as you would think so. You don't have to go out of your way to attend parties or go on roadtrips or participate in discussions if those aren't your cup of tea. You're not wasting your time even if you just want to sit and read a book, or write a code, or play a game alone. What matters most is that you enjoy every second of doing what you do.

"When it is obvious that the goals cannot be reached, don't adjust the goals, adjust the action steps." (Confucious)
