

Danyl Jon M. Ferrer

From not having any leadership position in high school to becoming the president of an organization in college, Ateneo has made me a man for others. My journey throughout college was a call to serve the community more. That journey would not be complete without the professors who taught me that life isn't about me but for others who have shown me that I'm not in this journey alone. As Robin Jones Gunn said, "If you want to go fast, go alone. If you want to go far, go together."

Andrea Nova R. Figuracion

"The hardest thing to get is perspective, to try to see the world through somebody else's eyes." (Ann Shoket)