

Daniella Gliceria L. Tiangco

Ask me what it's like to feel at home and I'll paint you a picture of my friendship with Danni. She's the ultimate make-up guru but in all honesty, she doesn't need it. Anyone who knows her marvels at her beauty inside and out. She may have one of the most intimidating faces but look a little closer & you'll see it turn into the most comforting smile. Danni's come a long way, owning all those classes, soaking up JTA and finally growing into the wonderful woman she is today. (L. Eala)

Arian E. Tiu

Despite the hassle of looking for parking space during peak time, having sleepless nights to prepare for oral tests, and struggling under hell profs, not once did I regret being in Ateneo. Friends who made hell weeks tolerable, school nights spent spontaneously, and three-hour breaks in JSEC made all the stress worthwhile. These are the moments that made my college life unforgettable. For these, and for making me the person I am and shaping the kind of person I will become, thank you, Ateneo.