MINOR IN HISTORY

Maria Lelaina
R. Cardeno

Leigh has once eaten fried scorpions and endured a strenuous mountain climb in the rain. Bewilderingly, she's found it much harder to finish her thesis manuscript and survive Ateneo with a degree. But she wouldn't have traded all her sleepless nights, crying spells, caffeine/Red Bull binges and minor breakdowns over Jollibee running out of Chicken Joy for the world. Many thanks to Ateneo for making her realize that she's much more resilient than she initially thought she'd be.
