

Benjamin Caleb F. Ngan

What makes an Atenean? Excellence in the disciplines of logic through mathematics, in the physical world through the natural sciences, in health through physical education, in human speech and writing through the languages. Then he must contemplate about society, the human condition, and the divine, the backdrop in which his journey as a student specializing in a field must take place. In a nutshell: the emptying of the self and duty towards his friends, neighbor, society, and God.

Fernando Edmidio S. Ramos

10 things I learned in college:

1. Sleep > Coffee. 2. Friends + Beer = No fail solution to bad LT's. 3. NEVER mix Beer and Tequila. 4. Picking the legendary prof will always be worth it. 5. Professors are people, JUST LIKE YOU. 6. Philosophy prepares you for life more than any subject. 7. Facebook Newsfeeds are the most efficient way to waste time. 8. Love conquers ALL. 9. Naps in the Library are good for you. 10. It's okay not to know what you want to do in life as long you know your WHY