

Arvin Nigel S. Gayona

Lord God, thank you for this time of independence that you gave me. Away from family and friends, I have learned so much about myself that I wouldn't have had back home. In some ways, I discovered who I am. I also discovered that there are parts of me that are still a blur. I'm thankful for the people I've met and the lessons I've learned during my stay in the Ateneo. It is because of them that I am able to hope for the goodness in man and for the beauty of the world.

Carlo Anton Y. Gesmundo

But stay woke.