Marie Leslie M. Constantino

Champion. Leslie Constantino is the perfect embodiment of that. College has thrown her countless challenges, yet she managed to put herself on the side of victory every single time. What makes her a champion is not all of her successes, but it is through her journey of rising up from failures and disappointments that she attained courage and strength. Life beyond college offers much more difficult obstacles, but Leslie's more than ready. After all, she's a champion. (D. Go)
