

Princess E. Siy

Quiet and unassuming, Princess prefers to listen rather than talk. She holds her cards close to her chest so you don't entirely know what she's all about, which may or may not be a good thing. There are times when she cracks a bad joke, which just makes you shake your head in dismay. She has an incredible sense of duty and a long memory - she forgives, but never forgets. Those whom she considers her friends are for the long haul.

Jesus Gabriel V. Sungcad

"Life's most persistent and urgent question is, 'What are you doing for others?'"
(Martin Luther King, Jr.)
