

MINOR IN SPANISH

Jolisa Victoria G. Madarang

Growth: the theme of my university life. From learning the need for growth to successfully growing, my journey has definitely been a tough one. I've learned that prioritization is crucial, especially with balancing your passions with academics. People always work for something, and for me that is a someone: my family, my "why" in life. Ateneo has taught me to work for my purpose by keeping my priorities in check. To the person reading this, remember your "why" and brave through whatever storm.

SPECIALIZATION IN INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

Inna D. Magpantay

"Let all that you do be done in love." (1 Corinthians 16:14)