Don't be afraid of making a wrong turn, or signing up on the wrong sheet, because it might just lead you to the right place. No regrets.

Juan Paulo V. Amador

A bald head and a Herculean physique are two characteristics that make Paulo “Pau” Amador stand out in a crowd, but these don't necessarily define him. He has big biceps and an even bigger heart. Any friend of his knows how driven and passionate he is in what he does. They're also aware of Pau's comic nature, which easily turns a frown upside down. It's the strength of his character and his composure that truly makes Pau a benevolent force to be reckoned with – a Herculean in the deepest sense.
