How much coffee
is too much coffee?

John Paul A. Mamaradlo

First of all, I thank God who played a great role in my Ateneo experience. I also want to express my sincerest gratitude to my family for the unconditional love and support; and the Ateneo community most especially, the Office of Admission and Aid for making my college education possible. I will forever cherish the memories and lessons learned from the people I met in this institution – my classmates, course-mates and beloved professors. Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam!
