

MINOR IN HISTORY & JAPANESE STUDIES

Rosemarie Grace C. Del Castillo

This wasn't my dream school.
But Ateneo had more than that.

From my OrSem, to four more as a TnT, to my block, to my JTA in Tsukuba University, to the Fine Arts (Program) Department, to all my life-changing professors, to all the people I encountered in Ateneo, to the magis this university has, to now the last leg of the race, the fifth year wild card. Ateneo you're truly a wonder.

I promise I'll keep on fighting.

During my first enlistment, a hold order led me to join a breakdance class for PE. I've been forced out of my comfort zone many times ever since. Thank you for everything, Ateneo.
