As much as I would have loved to skip school and go straight to the part where I become a princess, I must admit that I enjoyed every part of it, from the all-dayers to the all-nighters, the easy A's to the difficult C's, and everything else in between. For all the lessons learned, thank you, Ateneo, and for all the memories made, thank you, batchmates. I wouldn't have spent my four years in college any other way.

There are no words that can fully express how I feel about these last four years. It has been an incredible journey filled with sweat, tears, and laughter. Ateneo has taught me in more ways than one that success can come in various forms; that defeat is a part of life, but so is victory – and every single one should be celebrated. Every experience is an opportunity to learn and grow into a better person. I'll look back on these days fondly, knowing that they have helped me become who I am today.
