My four years in Ateneo has been nothing short of wonderful. The journey was tough but will always be something I will forever be thankful for. Ateneo has given me countless memories I will never forget, priceless learnings to bring with me even after graduation, and friendships to last a lifetime.

“Phoebe’s happiness and positivity radiates to the people around even in the most stressful times. The future seems bright for her with her creativity and ability to balance all aspects of her life.”
