SPECIALIZATION IN BIOMEDICAL SCIENCES

Paolo Anton O. Alvarez

Thank you:

For random post-its and magical dogs. For xiao long bao, matcha churros, and sweet corn popcorn, for beef nachos. For inside jokes and cynical side eye glances. For idle tambay to cramming sessions, both done in the lab. For late nights and car rides with open windows. For music we shouted and words we whispered during class. For the walks home and the run to nowhere. For the view under the stars and over the city. For understanding. For the friendship. For the love.
