

MINOR IN ENTERPRISE DEVELOPMENT; MINOR IN MANAGEMENT

Juan Fernando M. Eleria

Humor and wit are things we all wish we had. Jhofer has this in spades and exhibits it from his comments on Facebook, to cracking jokes in class. You can always count on him for a shoulder to cry on and for love advice. Time with him is truly enjoyable, making everyone who interacts with him a little bit happier. Never neglecting to talk to and greet everyone, even beyond his circle of friends, if you are having a bad day, he definitely is who you want by your side.

MINOR IN PUBLIC MANAGEMENT; SPECIALIZATION IN DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT

Before, Lanz wanted to give his family a comfortable life and to make his parents proud. Now, this dream includes not only himself and his family, but also those struggling to fulfil their dreams given their situation. Before, I knew Lanz as a loving person. Now, he has grown into the Lanz we know today. He is more loving than ever, recognizing that it was never about himself, but about those he loves in the depths of his heart. Lanz is who he was in the beginning, but now only more so.
