

MINOR IN FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

Audric Alphonse C. Sy

Life is hard. Reality hit me in every aspect of my life. I'm bruised and scarred but not in a bad way. What college has done, has made me mature, made me better. Each scar is a story to tell. These scars include happy moments that I miss during the bad times. Every moment and second of my college life changed me. I am not who I was 3-4 years ago. Life is hard, but there is more to life than shallow hardships, like camaraderie, love, etc. Life is hard, but we survived and still survive. Mew mew.

From all the all-nighters that meant sleeping at 3am to either cram a paper or study for final exams, to all the nights out with friends. It may have been the most difficult, but it was the best 4 years of my life.
