“Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things that you didn’t do than by the ones you did do. So throw off the bowlines. Catch the trade winds in your sails. Explore. Dream. Discover.” (Mark Twain)

There is still an infinite number of questions, but time spent in Ateneo has certainly provided life-changing insights and answers. Who knew college would be an immense journey of self-discovery and growth? Freshman year me would surely be in awe of how far I have come. So much has changed, and I know that I am on my way to becoming who I have always wanted to be. Thank you for the memories, Ateneo. It only gets better from here, and hopefully the universe continues to conspire in my favor.
