

MINOR IN DECISION SCIENCE

Mariangela D. Obviar

College life before was bland when I confined myself to the four walls of my room while dreaming of a perfect one. It was hard to imagine what fulfillment was until Ateneo gradually immersed me in a life where I would study for learning rather than for grades, grow stronger by acknowledging failures and rejections, and seek hope in overcoming challenges. All these moments, supported by my family and friends, have made me eager to wake up each day with full determination.

MINOR IN DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT

Antonio Joaquin R. Olaguer

Besides the thousands of Chino's jokes and pranks, you won't be able to count how many real conversations you'll have with him about self-growth, philosophy, love, and religion. With an intense passion for self-improvement, he always pushes himself and those around him to always be better. Chino is that friend who will go an extra mile with you, never failing to make you laugh and think a little bit more each time. (J. P. Insigne)
