Now, the dream is as big as it can get. The dream is out there. This dream is for every professor who molded me to be a critical and understanding student, for all the friends whom I have met along the way and will forever cherish, for the Ateneo which embedded in me the values to become a woman for others, for my hardworking parents who gave me the opportunity to learn in the best way, and of course for the greater glory of God.
Down the hill, I go...
