

Lorenzo Miguel
A. Navarro

“Things go away to return, brightened for the passage” (A.R. Ammons)

Jacinto Ray D. Ng III

My past four years in Ateneo haven't been easy, but they have definitely been worth it. From all-nighters for MA18A/B and MA21 back in freshman year, accounting in sophomore year, marketing in third year, up until thesis defense in senior year, I learned to be a tough fighter, never giving up, and at the same time, aiming high in every challenge that I face. Thank you, Ateneo for teaching me the spirit of Magis.