Nagsimula sa “Papunta saan?” at nakarating sa “Para kanino?”

The past four years had broken me in so many ways. And so I dedicate these excruciating yet most precious and fulfilling years of my life to Ronald and Jewel. To the muses who came and left. To the professors who knew when to turn those gentle nudges into back-breaking shoves of encouragement. To sun-dried tomatoes. To the people who freely restored my light. To the muses who stayed. To the university that has been the only place I can truly call home.

Dearest Ateneo, you have my heart.
