“She had not changed much--a little less slender, not so eagerly alive, yet something had gone.” (Paz Marquez Benitez, Dead Stars)

Jose Lorenzo A. Rodriguez

He's been my best friend since first year high school. I'm glad that for some strange reason, the two of us clicked. He's pretty chill, cool and admirable. He absolutely loves Star Wars. He thinks that Kobe Bryant is the best basketball player in the world. His dance moves during parties are always lit. His stories are quite exaggerated and he's a really noisy person. He will always be there in good times and in bad. Here's to more years of best-friendship. (Matthew M. Mandanas)
