Justin Lauren G. Soon

No existing quote can encapsulate what it truly means to go through college. I entered college eager to make the most out of my four-year stay, and even if things did not go exactly the way I planned, I can honestly say that I have no regrets. Ateneo has given me so much to be grateful for, and although I cannot share my experiences with you in these 500 characters, I would be more than happy to reminisce about the best four years of my life with you. Thank you for everything, Ateneo.

Four years meant a mixture of meeting new people who became your constants, figuring out how to eat out alone without anxiety, being fiercely independent and strong, learning patience in work, enjoying fun breather nights after hell weeks, exploring great heights, tackling the world with grace, taking care of yourself, blooming from pressure, emerging as diamonds, and choosing to love despite the hardest trials. I am forever grateful, Ateneo.
