

Renzo Roberto S. Lastimoso

Renzo Lastimoso is someone whom I would call a loyal friend. He's always there for you, and is always game for pretty much anything. Whenever you need someone to hang out with, or someone to vent to, he's your guy. Plus, he's fun to be with, and will always have a reason to laugh when you're with him, even if it's at his own expense. Everyone needs someone like him — a person they can always count on, and a person who isn't too sensitive when he becomes the butt of innocent jokes. (Mykee Coreces)

Nico Thomas Lazatin

“Keep on going, and chances are you will stumble on something, perhaps when you are least expecting it. I never heard of anyone ever stumbling on something sitting down.” (Charles F. Kettering)
