

MINOR IN SUSTAINABILITY

John Renzo A. Arceta

It's getting a bad score and knowing your friends are on the same boat. It's falling asleep in the middle of class. It's working late nights trying to save the sem. It's arguing about where to have lunch. It's the beat of your heart before an oral exam. It's the crammed reports. It's dancing at parties like no one's watching. It's the meetings and the group works. It's coffee, and milk tea, and banana sharpie highlighters. It's our friends. Because in the end, the ordinary saves us.

MINOR IN HEALTH AND DEVELOPMENT

Noel Matthew E. Arellano

“Lagi mong tatandaan na ‘pag unibig ang isang lalaki ay handa itong hamakin ang lahat. Gagawin lahat ng paraan upang makamitan ka at hindi niya kakayin na ikaw ay mawala sa kaniya.” (Parokya ni Edgar)
Sa pagbaba sa bundok, sana’y ipaglaban pa rin natin ang ating mga trip, gusto, nais, nasa at ibig. Sabi nga ng isang propesor sa Teolohiya, “Kung sapat ang bakit, kakayanin ang kahit anong paano.”
