Four years worth of sleepless nights, hell weeks, and crammed papers later, I am not afraid to say that my short stay in Ateneo could not have been any sweeter. I will always cherish these adventures that I've had, these bouts of laughter that I've shared, these stories that we all lived through together. It was in these moments that I found friendship, strength, happiness, and growth. And it was here that I found a time, a place, and a community where I can believe that anything was possible.

Sixteen years of being Atenean. Wow. I honestly cannot believe it. I never imagined myself to be True Blue. Even when I was a child, it was something that I never really dreamed of. Thankfully, I chose to stay. This university has taught me so much and made me experience a lot of things I never really saw myself doing. It helped me grow and develop into the person I am today. Thank you, Ateneo, for the sixteen years. It has been a pleasure.
