

MINOR IN FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

Manuel Kienth G. Gelera, Jr.

It is through openness and understanding that we learn and grow as persons for ourselves and most especially for others. My stay in Ateneo for the past seventeen years has been fruitful, and the said values form just a part of who I am today. For that, I will always be grateful to the people I have met and shared memories with in this place I call home. Here's to a heartfelt journey I will forever remember and to better days I have yet to know. And to my future self: Start living.
