

MINOR IN BUSINESS ENTERPRISE

Juan Paolo P. Gomez

JP is one of the most passionate and driven people you could ever meet. A master at balancing all his endeavours, from academics to side businesses, he makes sure to always put 110% into everything he does. He is extremely friendly and approachable. A social butterfly as many would call him, he never runs out of things to talk about with you. Consider yourself lucky if you ever got a taste of his brownies and coffee, they can turn any frown upside down!

Here's to surviving all four years without a single cup of coffee or a single sip of alcohol, to pulling all-nighters and resisting the urge to cry on my laptop, to faking stomach cramps just so I could sleep a bit in the clinic, and to the glory that is B.Wings. But most of all, here's to breaking out of my comfort zone, going from "Good enough" to "Not enough," to the professors that made me become a stronger, responsible student, and to the friendships I've made and wish to keep forever.
