

MINOR IN DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT; MINOR IN EDUCATION

Mark Geoffrey T. Uymatiao

“Life is the most exciting opportunity we have. But we have one shot. You graduate from college once, and that’s it. You’re going out of that nest. And you have to find that courage that’s deep, deep, deep in there. Every step of the way.” (Andrew Shue)

Aiyana Denise S. Valdez

500 CWS is not enough to encapsulate the person of this “frustrated artist.” A leader who moves and is moved by the very people who believe in her, she inarguably has a heart for many. Despite her rather tough exterior and frank personality, her unwavering passion for adventure and genuine friendship never fail to shine through. Yana, despite her numerous successes and share of failures, is most certainly one who cannot be defined solely by these—she undeniably goes beyond. (C. Alfonso)
