

MINOR IN DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT

Lindsey Vashti C. Ocampo Tan

Thank you, Ateneo, for the challenges that pushed me beyond what I thought were my limits, for the opportunities that allowed me to grow beyond expectations, and for the people that acted as my support system through this roller coaster ride known as college. Most importantly, thank you for making me realize that, “I alone cannot change the world, but I can cast a stone across the water to create many ripples.” (Mother Teresa)

Thank you, Ateneo, for teaching me not only how to be the captain of my own ship but also how to be its first mate, for teaching me not only how to ride my own ship but also how to sail it, for providing me with a stern hull to brave the stormy seas, for being both the sail and wind that push me and the helm that guides me, for teaching me how to follow the light, for showing me the stars when all I see is the dark, and for being the dock that both grounds me and sets me free.
