Life is so much bigger than me. It's what I learned from Ateneo that defines who I am as a person and what I intend to pursue when I have my future in mind. The world could become a better place if we just took the time to look around, realise that not everyone has the same opportunities we do, and somehow work hand-in-hand with them. One day, I will turn this into a reality.

To Ateneo, thank you for the four years of risks, failures, try-agains, and successes. It's been nothing short of a dream come true. Now it's time to pursue even bigger dreams, with heart and a whole lot of Magis!
